Boards and Commissions

- Diversity on boards and commissions ensures that a breadth of community perspectives can be heard.
- Thoughtful consideration of all points of view is strongly encouraged.
- Separate people from issues when conflict arises.
- Teamwork and consensus building are paramount.

Boards and Commissions Training

Role of the Chairperson:

- As the presiding officer, the chair is key to the effectiveness of meetings.
- The chair must use parliamentary procedure to conduct efficient meetings.
- The chair must set the tone by ensuring that all voices are heard, and divergent perspectives are given consideration.
- The chair must treat the public with courtesy and diplomacy.

Successful Meetings:

- Public hearings are public meetings-- not meetings of the public.
- Refrain from displaying negative gestures and sounds of disagreement.
- Technical jargon should be clarified so all can follow the meeting.
- Treat the public with dignity and respect and thank them for their participation.

The Challenging Meeting:

- Plan the agenda strategically and carefully.
- Convey that you are aware of concerns so that all will remain calm and receptive during deliberations.
- Anticipate and prepare in advance, responses to difficult questions that may arise.
- Request that issue(s) be restated so that all are working with the same set of facts.
- Explain the rules relative to public comment from the outset of the meeting.
- Ensure that all who wish to speak have the opportunity to do so.
- Model polite listening behavior.
- Apply speaking time limits impartially and consistently.

Media Relations:

- The City of Hastings is covered by all forms of media.
- Weigh whether you are the appropriate person to speak with the media on a given topic.
- Be mindful of the possibility that the media may misquote or misrepresent your comments.
- You have the right to expression as a private citizen but be sure to clarify with the media that you are expressing your viewpoint and not representing the opinions of others or the opinion of the City of Hastings.
